“The Isthmian Football League strongly supports the Football Association’s statement that there should be a zero-tolerance approach against all forms of discrimination. Any inappropriate conduct towards others, including but not limited to that based on an individual’s sex, race, colour, weight, size, religion and belief, national origin, age, marital or domestic- partnership status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, will not be tolerated and will be reported to the relevant authorities. The Isthmian League and our Member Clubs are committed to promoting equity and equality by treating all people fairly and with respect, by recognising that inequalities may exist, by taking steps to address them and providing access and opportunities for all members of our communities.”

Walthamstow welcome Concord Rangers to Wadham Lodge this Saturday in what promises to be a compelling clash in the Isthmian League Division One North. With both sides eager to climb the table, the match could prove pivotal as the season approaches its midway point.

Walthamstow currently sit mid-table, having picked up 13 points from their opening 10 games. Their form has been mixed, with three wins, four draws, and three defeats, but they'll be buoyed by a recent upturn in performances. A home fixture offers a chance to build momentum, especially with the backing of their loyal supporters.

Concord Rangers, meanwhile, are slightly higher in the standings with 19 points from 12 matches. Their record of six wins and five losses suggests a team capable of brilliance but vulnerable to inconsistency. They'll be looking to bounce back from a string of defeats and reassert themselves as promotion contenders.

Historically, there's little to separate the sides. Their previous meeting ended in a 1-1 draw, with goals from L. Johnson and T. Stagg, highlighting the competitive nature of the fixture

Both teams will be aware of the stakes and the opportunity to gain ground on the leaders.

Key battles are expected in midfield, where Walthamstow's creativity will be tested against Concord's physicality. Set pieces could also play a decisive role, given both teams' tendency to capitalize on dead-ball situations.

Kick-off is at 3pm, and with both teams hungry for points, fans can expect a tightly contested encounter full of energy and ambition.

Ever thought of volunteering to help your local football club?

There are many different volunteer roles in non-league football and Isthmian League football clubs need your help with them.
