“The Isthmian Football League strongly supports the Football Association’s statement that there should be a zero-tolerance approach against all forms of discrimination. Any inappropriate conduct towards others, including but not limited to that based on an individual’s sex, race, colour, weight, size, religion and belief, national origin, age, marital or domestic- partnership status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, will not be tolerated and will be reported to the relevant authorities. The Isthmian League and our Member Clubs are committed to promoting equity and equality by treating all people fairly and with respect, by recognising that inequalities may exist, by taking steps to address them and providing access and opportunities for all members of our communities.”

Walthamstow return to action at Wadham Lodge on 21 March 2026 with a home fixture against Heybridge Swifts in the Isthmian League Division One North, as both sides look to pick up valuable points heading into the final stretch of the season. The match kicks off at 3pm and represents an opportunity for the hosts to build on some encouraging recent performances.

Walthamstow come into the game having shown improved form in recent weeks, including an impressive away victory at Lowestoft Town and a hard-fought draw at Felixstowe & Walton United. Despite a narrow defeat at Takeley last time out, there have been clear signs of progress, particularly in attacking areas where they have looked capable of scoring goals against strong opposition. Their home form has also produced some important results this season, and they will be aiming to make Wadham Lodge a difficult place for visiting sides during the run-in.

Heybridge Swifts, meanwhile, have found the campaign more challenging and sit in the lower reaches of the table. They have struggled for consistency and points, particularly away from home, and will be looking to use this fixture as a chance to turn their fortunes around. Their approach is likely to be built around organisation and discipline, attempting to frustrate Walthamstow and capitalise on any mistakes through quick counter-attacks or set pieces.

The previous meeting between the sides this season will give Walthamstow confidence, having secured a 3-1 victory away from home in December. More broadly, the recent head-to-head record favours the hosts, who have won three of the last five encounters and remain unbeaten against Heybridge Swifts across those matches. That history suggests Walthamstow have often found a way to break down their opponents, although several of those games have been competitive and closely contested.

Tactically, Walthamstow are likely to take the initiative, looking to control possession and apply pressure through the wide areas, while maintaining enough defensive discipline to guard against counter-attacks. The midfield battle will be key, as the hosts aim to dictate the tempo and create openings, while Heybridge will try to disrupt rhythm and keep the game compact. Set pieces could also play an important role, particularly if the match remains tight deep into the second half.

With both teams needing points for different reasons, this has the potential to be a competitive encounter. Walthamstow's recent form, home advantage and positive record in this fixture give them the edge, but Heybridge Swifts will be determined to make things difficult and could pose a threat if given opportunities. A narrow home win looks the most likely outcome, though it may require patience and resilience from Walthamstow to secure all three points.
